•The standard of the 17th Confederate Cavalry, Company H, 17th
Cavalry, was a flag with the words "Texas" and "17th Cavalry" on it.
The flag was captured by the Union forces at the Battle of Vicksburg in July 1863. The flag was then sent to the War Department in Washington, D.C. and was kept there until 1865. The flag was then sent to the National Archives and Records Administration in College Park, Maryland, where it is now on display.

JAS

Under the rules of this Department information from the official records cannot be furnished for use in the prosecution of a claim for pension. Nevertheless, it is necessary that such information should be furnished for that purpose, because all the data afforded by the official records in this Department that may have a bearing upon any such claim are always furnished, upon the request therefor, to the claimant along with the indication of the claim.

It is possible that such a result might be obtained by this rule, because all that is necessary for a claimant to do is to make his claim, and then, charged by law with the obligation of the law with the indication of the claim, he may be called upon to furnish the necessary information. It is, however, to be observed that the information furnished by the official records of the War Department is not binding upon the claimant, and is not to be used therefor.

I herewith tender my unconditional and immediate resignation as Captain in the Provisional C.S.A for reason of Disability. Although I have been on duty most of the time during the last four months, I have not really been able to discharge the duties of an Officer on account of constantly increasing disability.

I am Very Respectfully
Your Obt. Servt

Jas B. McKnight
Capt Co H 17th Consolidated
Regt Texas Second Cavalry

I certify that I have carefully examined Capt. J. B. McKnight and find him incapable of performing the duties of his Office because of Hypertrophy and dilatation of the left Ventricle of the heart, with disease of the Aortic Valves he also has Chronic Rheumatism. All of which wholly incapacitate him for discharging the duties of his Office, I therefore recommend that his resignation be accepted.

The 17th (also known as Moore's) Regiment Texas Cavalry was organized and accepted into the service of the Confederate States March 15, 1862, with ten companies, and re-organized May 22, 1862, with nine companies, (1st) Company I having been transferred to the 24th Regiment Texas Cavalry April 22, 1862, and became Company B. (1st) Company K, 14th Regiment Texas Infantry was transferred to this regiment soon after the muster of October 31, 1862, and became (3d) Company I. A part of this regiment was captured at Arkansas Post, Ark. January 11, 1863, and exchanged east of the Mississippi River in April and May 1863, when it was consolidated with similar remnants of the 18th, 24th and 25th Regiments Texas Cavalry. This consolidation was broken up in March, 1864, when these parts of the 17th and 18th Regiments Texas Cavalry were ordered to form one field organization but each appears to have been mustered separately. About April 9, 1865, the portion of the regiment was consolidated with the remnants of other regiments of the Texas Brigade and paroled at Greensboro, N. C., about May 1, 1865. That part of the regiment which was not captured January 11, 1863, remained west of the Mississippi River and was consolidated with similar remnants of other Texas regiments about June 1, 1863, forming the 17th Consolidated Regiment Texas Dismounted Cavalry.

Remark

The 17th (also known as Moore's) Regiment Texas Cavalry was organized and accepted into the service of the Confederate States March 18, 1862 with ten companies, and re-organized May 22, 1862 with nine companies. (1st) company having been transferred to the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry April 2, 1862 and the same company (1st) transferred to this regiment soon after the muster in October 31, 1862 and became (30th) Company, Ark. January 11, 1863 and exchanged east of the Mississippi River in April and May 1863, when it was consolidated with the 18th Regiment, but up in March 1863 when these parts of the 18th and 17th Regiments, Texas Cavalry were united to form one regiment organization, but each appears to have been mustered separately with the regiment. This part of the 17th Regiment was mustered April 9, 1863 at Texarkana, N. C. and May 1, 1863. That part of the regiment which was not captured at Vicksburg and surrendered west of the Mississippi River and was captured at Vicksburg forming the 17th consolidated Regiment Texas Cavalry.

Remarks:

The 17th (also known as Moore's) Regiment Texas Cavalry was organized and accepted into the service of the Confederate States March 15, 1862, with ten companies, and re-organized May 22, 1862, with nine companies, (1st) Company I having been transferred to the 24th Regiment Texas Cavalry April 22, 1862, and became Company B, (1st) Company K, 14th Regiment Texas Infantry, was transferred to this regiment soon after the muster of October 31, 1862, and became (1st) Company I. A part of this regiment was captured at Arkansas Post, Ark., January 11, 1863, and exchanged east of the Mississippi River in April and May, 1863, when it was consolidated with similar remnants of the 15th, 24th and 25th Regiments Texas Cavalry. This consolidation was effected up in March, 1864, when these parts of the 17th and 18th Regiments Texas Cavalry were united to form one field organization, but each appears to have been mustered separately. About April 9, 1865, this portion of the regiment was consolidated with the remnants of other regiments of Gannaway's Texas Brigade and paroled at Greensboro, N. C., about May 1, 1865. That part of the regiment which was not captured January 11, 1863, remained east of the Mississippi River and was consolidated with similar remnants of other Texas regiments about July 1, 1863, forming the 17th Consolidated Regiment Texas Dismounted Cavalry.
